SEC. 30. That the Commissioners of the Town of Mount Olive, in addition to the powers of taxation already granted in the charter of said town and the amendments thereto, shall be and are hereby empowered to levy and collect annually a privilege or license tax on all trades, professions, agencies, business operations, exhibitions and manufactories in said town of Mount Olive.

License tax on trades, profession and business.

SEC. 31. That all taxes levied by the board of commissioners shall be a lien upon the personal property of the tax-payers from date of levy thereon, and upon the real property from the first day of June of the year in which the said tax is levied.

Tax lien on property.

That after the first day of January of each year the tax collector is authorized to levy upon and sell upon a notice of ten (10) days the personal property of any delinquent tax-payer; and to sell the real estate of any delinquent tax-payer, after a notice of thirty (30) days: Provided, said tax collector may at any time levy upon and sell said personal property, upon filing an affidavit that he has reason to believe that such tax-payer is about to leave the town of Mount Olive and that there is danger of the loss of the taxes due by him, and obtaining an order from the mayor directing him forthwith to levy upon and sell the personal property of such tax-payer. The notice provided for in this section shall be posted at the court-house door and published in some newspaper published in the county of Wayne; that whenever any property, real or personal, is sold for non-payment of taxes, as herein provided, the town of Mount Olive may become the purchaser, provided there is no bidder for the property so sold for the amount of the taxes and costs due upon the same; that the tax collector shall keep a record of all sales made by him, and upon the sale of any real property as herein authorized shall deliver to the purchaser a certificate stating the name of delinquent tax-payer, the amount of taxes and costs and describing the real estate so sold; and if within twelve months the owner of said real estate shall not redeem the same by paying to the purchaser the amount of said taxes and costs, with ten per cent. added thereto, the tax collector shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed for the said real estate, which deed shall conform as near as may be to deeds executed by sheriffs upon sales of real estate for taxes, and shall have the same force and effect; there shall be the same fees and costs charged as upon sales by sheriffs for taxes.

Levy on and sale of property.

Redemption within twelve months.

Deed to purchaser.

SEC. 32. That the board of commissioners shall have power to declare all horses, mules, cattle, swine, sheep, goats and dogs, running at large within the limits of the town, a nuisance; and the commissioners may at their option impose a fine upon the owner or owners of said animals so running at large, or may treat the same as a nuisance, and abate or prohibit by law.
